HB No. 1206

Abstract: Decreases the disabled veteran disability threshold for exemption from driver's license fees.

Present law provides that veterans shall be exempt from the payment of driver's license fees if they meet all of the following conditions:

- (1) Was honorably discharged.
- (2) Has a service-related disability of at least 60%.
- (3) Receives compensation from the U.S. government because of such disability.
- (4) Is not subject to the registration requirements of Chapter 3-B of Title 15 of the L.R.S. of 1950.

Proposed law decreases the disability percentage to 50%, otherwise retains present law.

(Amends R.S. 32:412.2(A)(2))
